Description

The camera is equipped with an infrared sensor, so there is no need to enter a password to log in to a device with Windows Hello, just look into the lens is enough to log in. Fast and secure facial recognition supports the use of multiple accounts. The biometric identification prevents from logging in with just a photo. The webcam offers crisp and true color video and image quality thanks to the 1080p resolution. The omnidirectional microphone guarantees professional sound in any environment. Place the camera where it suits best - on the monitor, notebook, tripod or tabletop. The practical clip for attachment enables uncomplicated installation within a very short time. There is no need to install additional software or drivers because the webcam works with Plug-and-Play. Simply plug the integrated USB cable of the camera into the notebook or computer and the webcam is ready to use in a few seconds.
